OUNTRY Czechoslovakia DATE DISTR. 6 JAN 50		INFORMATION REPOR	REPORT
DATE DISIR. 6 JAN 50 Reorganization of National Industries to Take Effect on 1 January 1950 NO. OF ENGLS. QUIRED NO. OF ENGLS. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION TO now the nationalized industries have always avalgamated several concerns, so natives 10, but northy from 20 to 50, into one whole concern. The control organ of each such industry was the so-called Industrial Nanavement Contern. Hitherto all the Industrial Nanavement contern in the same sector have been subordinated to the Geraral Nanayeneth Centern in the same sector have been subordinated to the Geraral Nanavent Centern in the same sector have been subordinated to the Geraral Nanavent Centern in the same sector have been subordinated to the Geraral Nanavent Centern in the same sector have been subordinated to the Decraral Sungement Centern in the same sector have been subordinated to the Geraral Nanavent Centern in the same sector have been subordinated to the Decraral Nanavent Centern in the same sector have been subordinated to the Geraral Nanavent Centern in the same sector have been subordinated to the Geraral Nanavent Centern in the same sector have been subordinated to the Geraral Nanavent Centern in the same sector have been subordinated to the industry oncerned, and the General anavent has been directly under the Ministry of Industrial Nanavent Centern will be administration of the reparate concerns satisfactorily, and the administrative arparatus has been too undeldy and costly. For this reason all industrial Concerns are to be reorganized by decree of the Ministry of Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date only two to five concerns and the Surgest of the concerns will be the so-called Nanaven	•		* CD NO. 50X1-HUM
Take Effect on 1 January 1950 NO. OF ENCLS. QUIRED NO. OF ENCLS. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. Up to now the nationalized industries have always analgamated several concern, so netires 10, but mortly from 20 to 50, into one whole concern. The control organ of each such industry was the so-called Industrial Management Centers in the same sector have been subordinated to the General Management of the industry. 2. This system of centralization has not proved its worth, as most of the industry. 2. This system of centralization has not proved its worth, as most of the industry of Industry. 3. For this reason all industrial concerns are to be reorganized by decree of the Ministry of Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industrial Management Centers will be abolished. As from this date only two to five concerns, according to their stay, will be amalgament. Greater control, established as from this date only two to five concerns, according to their stay, will be amalgament. Greater control, established for small languagement. General Management Centers will be amalgament. Greater control, established for small languagement. General Management Centers will thus be made possible and the extense of running the Industrial thus per made possible and the extense of running the Industrial Centers will thus be reade possible and the extense of running the Industrial Centers will be the so-called Prother concerns will the management centers will be made possible and the extense of running the Industrial Centers will be the so-called Prother concerns will then be subordinate to the General Centers will be the so-called Prother concerns will the per made possible and the extense of running the Industrial Centers will be contensed the protect of the concerns will the per made possible and the extense of running the Industrial Centers will be contensed wi	OUNTRY	Czechoslovakia	DATE DISTR. 6 JAN 50
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. Up to now the nationalized industries have always analgamated several concern., so retires 10, but northy from 20 to 50, into one whole concern. The contral organ of each such industry was the so-called Industrial Management Centers will be sense to be encorned and the General Management Centers in the industry. 2. This system of centralization has not proved its worth, as most of the industries concerned have not been able to control the administration of the reparato concerns satisfactorily, and the administrative arparatus has been too unwieldy and coatly. 3. For this reason all industrial Concerns are to be recognized by decree of the limitary of Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industrial Management Centers will be abolished. As from this date only two to five concerns, according to their size, will be amalgament. Genters The rother concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Genters The other concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Genters and the made month of the industrial Management of the former Industrial Management. Genters will be made monthly and the avenue of running the Industrial Concerns, will thus be made monthly and the avenue of running the Industrial Concerns, will the be belored to the General Management. Genters of the concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Genters of the concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Genters of the concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Genters of the concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Genters of the concerns will then be subordinate to the General M	ubje ct		NO. OF PAGES 1
1. Up to now the nationalized industries have always analgamated several concerns, sometimes of the positive of the control of the control of the control of the several control of the control of the control of the several control of the control of the control of the several control of the control of the industry was the several control of the control of the control of the industry concerned, and the General languagement of the industry of Industry. 2. This system of centralization has not proved its worth, as most of the industries concerned have not been working well. The individual Industrial languagement Centers have not been working well. The individual Industrial languagement Centers have not been able to control the administration of the reparate concerns astificatorily, and the administrative arparatus has been too unwieldy and costly. 3. For this reason all industrial concerns are to be reorganized by decree of the limistry of Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industrial Management Centers will be abolished. As from this date only two to five concerns, according to their date, will be amalgament Center. The other concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Greater control, sensitively of small concerns, will thus be reade possible and the excense of running the Industrial Management Centers will			NO. OF ENCLS.	1-HU
1. Up to now the nationalized industries have always analgamated several concern, sometimes of the month of the industrial lanagement Centers in the same sector have been subordinated to the General lanagement Centers the limitative of Industrial lanagement Centers have not been able to control the administration of the management Centers have concerns at the industry, and the administrative argaratus has been too unwieldy and coatly. 3. For this reason all industrial concerns are to be reorganized by decree of the infinity of Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industrial Management Centers will be abolished. As from this date only two to five concerns, according to their size, will be amalgament Center. The rother concerns will then be subordinated to the General Management Centers will the second lanagement Centers. The rother concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Greater control, especially of small concerns, will thus be rade possible and the expense of running the Industrial lanagement. Centers will be reade possible and the expense of running the Industrial lanagement Centers will thus be rade possible and the expense of running the Industrial lanagement Centers will be reade possible and the expense of running the Industrial lanagement Centers will	ATE OF I	NFO.
1. Up to now the nationalized industries have always analgamated several concern, sometimes 10, but mostly from 20 to 50, into one whole concern. The central organ of each such industry was the so-called Industrial Management Center. Mitherto all the Industrial Management Centers in the same sector have been subordinated to the General Management of the industry concerned, and the General Management has been directly under the Ministry of Industry. 2. This system of centralization has not proved its worth, as most of the injustries concerned have not been working well. The individual Industrial management Centers have not been able to control the administration of the reparate concerns satisfactorily, and the administrative arparatus has been too unwieldy and costly. 3. For this reason all industrial concerns are to be reorganized by decree of the Ministry of Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industrial Management Centers will be abolished. As from this date only two to five concerns, according to their size, will be smallegamated into one whole, and the largest of the concerns will be the so-called "nother concern" and will take over the swhere of authority of the former Industrial Management Center. The rother concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Greater control, especially of small concerns, will thus be made possible and the expense of running the Industrial Management Centers will	. E. C., SI AND F ITS CONYER (BITES BY LA	STATES WITHIN THE MEATHER OF THE ESPIONACE ACT SO 32. AS ALVESTED. ITS TEAMORISEID OF THE REVELLATION TO THE AVENUE TO AN UMADTHORIZED PERSON IS PRO- 7. EMPROPLECTION OF THESE FORM IS PROPHIETED.	NEVALUATED INFORMATION	r
 Up to now the nationalized industries have always analgamated several concerns, sometimes 10, but mostly from 20 to 50, into one whole concerns. The contral organ of each such industry was the so-called Industrial Management Center. Mitherto all the Industrial Management of the industry concerned, and the General Management of the industry concerned, and the General Management has been directly under the Ministry of Industry. This system of centralization has not proved its worth, as most of the industries concerned have not been working well. The individual Industrial Management Centers have not been able to control the administration of the reparate concerns satisfactorily, and the administrative arparatus has been too unwieldy and costly. For this reason all industrial concerns are to be reorganized by decree of the Ministry of Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industrial Management Centers will be abolished. As from this date only two to five concerns, according to their size, will be amalgamented into one whole, and the Jangest of the concerns will be the so-called "nother concern" and will take over the swhere of authority of the former Industrial Management. Greater control, especially of small concerns, will thus be made possible and the expense of running the Industrial Management Centers will 			50X1	-HUI cerra, sometimes 10, but mostly from 20 to 50, into one whole concern. The central organ of each such industry was the so-called Industrial Management Center. Mitherto all the Industrial Management Centers in the same sector have been subordinated to the General Management of the industry concerned, and the General Management has been directly under the Ministry of Industry. 2. This system of centralization has not proved its worth, as most of the industries concerned have not been working well. The individual Industrial Management Centers have not been able to control the administration of the reparate concerns satisfactorily, and the administrative arparatus has been too unwieldy and costly. 3. For this reason all industrial concerns are to be reorganized by decree of the Ministry of Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industrial Management Centers will be abolished. As from this date only two to five concerns, according to their size, will be amalgamented into one whole, and the largest of the concerns will be the so-called "nother concern" and will take over the swhere of authority of the former Industrial Management Center. The cother concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Greater control, especially of small concerns, will thus be made possible and the expense of running the Industrial Management Centers will the Hinistry of Industry and are to be decentralized as of 1 January 1950, on which date the Industrial Management Centers will be abolished. As from this date only two to five concerns, according to their size, will be amalgarated into one whole, and the largest of the concerns will be the so-called "nother concern" and will take over the sphere of authority of the former Industrial Management Center. The mother concerns will then be subordinate to the General Management. Greater control, especially of small concerns, will thus be made possible and the expense of running the Industrial Management Centers will cerne, sometimes 10, but mostly from 20 to 50, central organ of each such industry was the so-Center. Hitherto all the Industrial Management have been subordinated to the General Management and the General Management has been directly un. This system of centralization has not proved it dustries concerned have not been working well. Management Centers have not been able to contro reparate concerns satisfactorily, and the admin	into one whole concern. The called Industrial Management Centers in the same sector t of the industry concerned, der the Ministry of Industry. s worth, as most of the in- The individual Industrial I the administration of the
	2.	cerns, sometimes 10, but mostly from 20 to 50, central organ of each such industry was the so-Center. Hitherto all the Industrial Management have been subordinated to the General Management and the General Management has been directly un. This system of centralization has not proved it dustries concerned have not been working well. Management Centers have not been able to controperate concerns satisfactorily, and the admin too unwieldy and costly. For this reason all industrial concerns are to the Ministry of Industry and are to be decentrated in which date the Industrial Management Centers this date only two to five concerns, according gamated into one whole, and the largest of the "nother concern" and will take over the sphere Management Center. The pother concerns will the Management. Greater control, especially of smalpossible and the expense of running the Industrial	into one whole concern. The called Industrial Management Centers in the same sector tof the industry concerned, der the Ministry of Industry. s worth, as most of the in- The individual Industrial of the definistration of the distrative arparatus has been be reorganized by decree of dized as of 1 January 1950, will be abolished. As from to their size, will be amaleconcerns will be the so-called of authority of the former Industrial of subordinate to the General concerns, will thus be made	i al
	2.	cerns, sometimes 10, but mostly from 20 to 50, central organ of each such industry was the so-Center. Hitherto all the Industrial Management have been subordinated to the General Management and the General Management has been directly un. This system of centralization has not proved it dustries concerned have not been working well. Management Centers have not been able to controperate concerns satisfactorily, and the admin too unwieldy and costly. For this reason all industrial concerns are to the Ministry of Industry and are to be decentrated in which date the Industrial Management Centers this date only two to five concerns, according gamated into one whole, and the largest of the "nother concern" and will take over the sphere Management Center. The pother concerns will the Management. Greater control, especially of smalpossible and the expense of running the Industrial	into one whole concern. The called Industrial Management Centers in the same sector tof the industry concerned, der the Ministry of Industry. s worth, as most of the in- The individual Industrial of the definistration of the distrative arparatus has been be reorganized by decree of dized as of 1 January 1950, will be abolished. As from to their size, will be amaleconcerns will be the so-called of authority of the former Industrial of subordinate to the General concerns, will thus be made	ial
	2.	cerns, sometimes 10, but mostly from 20 to 50, central organ of each such industry was the so-Center. Hitherto all the Industrial Management have been subordinated to the General Management and the General Management has been directly un. This system of centralization has not proved it dustries concerned have not been working well. Management Centers have not been able to controperate concerns satisfactorily, and the admin too unwieldy and costly. For this reason all industrial concerns are to the Ministry of Industry and are to be decentrated in which date the Industrial Management Centers this date only two to five concerns, according gamated into one whole, and the largest of the "nother concern" and will take over the sphere Management Center. The pother concerns will the Management. Greater control, especially of smalpossible and the expense of running the Industrial	into one whole concern. The called Industrial Management Centers in the same sector tof the industry concerned, der the Ministry of Industry. s worth, as most of the in- The individual Industrial of the definistration of the distrative arparatus has been be reorganized by decree of dized as of 1 January 1950, will be abolished. As from to their size, will be amaleconcerns will be the so-called of authority of the former Industrial of subordinate to the General concerns, will thus be made	i a]
	2.	cerns, sometimes 10, but mostly from 20 to 50, central organ of each such industry was the so-Center. Hitherto all the Industrial Management have been subordinated to the General Management and the General Management has been directly un This system of centralization has not proved it dustries concerned have not been working well. Management Centers have not been able to contromerate concerns satisfactorily, and the admin too unwieldy and costly. For this reason all industrial concerns are to the Ministry of Industry and are to be decentrated which date the Industrial Management Centers this date only two to five concerns, according gamated into one whole, and the largest of the "nother concern" and will take over the sphere Management Center. The nother concerns will the Management. Greater control, especially of small possible and the expense of running the Industribe avoided.	into one whole concern. The called Industrial Management Centers in the same sector tof the industry concerned, der the Ministry of Industry. s worth, as most of the in- The individual Industrial of the definistration of the distrative arparatus has been be reorganized by decree of dized as of 1 January 1950, will be abolished. As from to their size, will be amaleconcerns will be the so-called of authority of the former Industrial of subordinate to the General concerns, will thus be made	ial